CALL 2018
XX International Call for Young Artists

Description and features

This program is aimed at national and international young artists (between 25–35 years of age), whose work is maturing and who have the skills, abilities and knowledge that enable them to develop their projects with clarity and consistency.

For our gallery, the main purpose of this call is to establish a real link with today's youth environment. Our goal is to give artists the opportunity to present their works in a professional context, allowing them to collaborate and create a possibly permanent relationship with our gallery. The selection will be done by Olga Adelantado, with the gallery team; Virginia Murcia and Isabel Puig.

Prize

The selection made among all the presented proposals will involve the following aspects:

- The selected artists will take part in a group exhibition to be held at our gallery from 6 July to 13 September, 2018.
- Within this selection, our gallery will choose a prominent artist, who will be given the opportunity to develop a project to be hosted in our Boiler Room space in the programming of the following year 2018–2019.
- Luis Adelantado gallery will acquire a work of the project made by the artist for Boiler Room.

Decision

The final decision will be posted on our news section in the gallery's website by the middle of May. Due to the high number of participants, only those selected will be informed via e-mail.

In turn, the number of exhibited works may vary, depending on the artists selected and the specific features of each work.
