Eleni Gkinosati

About

Eleni Gkinosati is a Greek emerging artist with Central American roots. In 2018, she obtained her second MA in painting at Kingston University, London, after a stint as a trainee in scenography at Greece's National Theatre and studying at Universidad Complutense de Madrid.

Her work has been exhibited in institutions including Piraeus Bank Cultural Foundation, Documenta14 Athens, Palazzo Riso Palermo, Les Salaisons, Paris, 7th Biennale of Art Schools in Greece at the Theocharakis Foundation, among others.

Additionally, Galerie Krinzinger has showcased her work in its residency program and at various international art fairs, including Art Miami, Paris+, Frieze London, and Art Basel. Over the past year, she has lived and worked in several European cities, drawing inspiration from diverse environments. Currently, she is participating in an artist residency at the St. Moritz Art Academy in Switzerland.
